

The Millan Centre

Organisation details

The Millan Centre is a community hub exclusively dedicated to empowering women and girls in Bradford's Manningham and Heaton areas. They provide a safe and accessible environment for educational, social, and health-related activities. With a focus on equal opportunities and diversity, the centre offers a varied program that stimulates personal growth and fosters active citizenship. Courses and groups cater to women over 19 years old, while girls under 18 can participate with parental consent. Through grants and partnerships, the Millan Centre remains an independent resource, offering sewing classes, ESOL, life skills, digital skills, and more.
