Testimonials

Sharon Orr - Group Social Impact Programme Manager

"Team volunteering challenges have always been really important to us at Provident and they are a really great way for colleagues to feel like they are giving something back to our communities"

Abby Jones - Customer Success Manager

"Working on projects with Participate is such a joy! We love seeing the positive impact on our local community, and we see the benefits of taking part in a team challenge when we get back to the office. But most of all, we have fun!"

David Hewitt - Communities Manager

"Participate have provided us with opportunities for team volunteering & skills volunteering for almost 200 colleagues. Together we have created community allotments, built sensory school gardens, painted community buildings, wrapped Christmas presents for under privileged children and delivered workshops to aspiring social entrepreneurs. Working with Participate enables Morrisons to make a valuable contribution to the community around our head office"
